

Our Home/School Agreement

The school will do its best to:

1. Regularly celebrate children's achievements.
2. Encourage children to do their best at all times and to think well of themselves.
3. Care for your child's safety and general wellbeing.
4. Keep you informed about your child's progress and general school matters.
5. Provide an enriched curriculum and meet your child's individual needs.
6. To be open, friendly and welcoming at all times, and to offer you the chance to become involved in the life of the school.
7. Assist children to make healthy and safe choices.
8. Be positive role models for the children.
9. Make learning fun.

Signed: Mrs Simmons Headteacher

The Parents/Guardians will do their best to:

1. Ensure that their child attends school regularly (95% +) and on time, providing an explanation of any absence by 9.30 am on the day of absence.
2. Observe the school's uniform and provide children with the correct PE kit.
3. Tell the school about any problems at home that might affect their child's behaviour, support the school's behaviour policy and zero tolerance towards violence.
4. Attend meetings to discuss their child's progress.
5. Encourage their child to complete homework and read regularly, bringing their reading book daily.
6. Encourage their child to make healthy and safe choices.
7. Be positive role models for the children by adhering to the Parent, Carers and Visitors code of conduct.
8. Refrain from using mobile phones in school.
9. Park safely and considerately in the neighbourhood avoiding the school safety zone.
