

This week our focus is

Diwali

Please use the information below to support your child's learning at home 😊

Key Vocabulary An explanation for parents

Diwali

Hindus celebrate Diwali. It is also called the Festival of Lights. It happens every autumn.

Diva lamp

A diva lamp is a small metal or clay dish. Inside there is oil or a candle and a flame burns. It creates light.

Rangoli pattern

A rangoli patterns is a decoration on the floor or ground. It is made of cereals, sand or flower petals.

Sita and Rama

Sita and Rama are the main characters in the Diwali story.

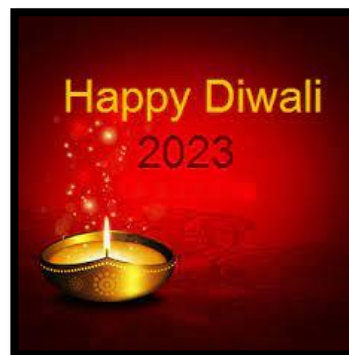

Diwali is a festival of lights celebrated every autumn by some people in the world. The lights help people to remember that good beats evil.

Diwali Day 2023

is on

Sunday 12th

November

We will be sharing the shadow puppet story of Rama and Sita. In the story, Rama rescues Sita. There is a battle.

- ❖ Who is your favourite character in the story?
- ❖ Can you use chalks to create a Rangoli pattern?
- ❖ Did the 10 headed monster make good choices in the story?